Membership in the Writers Network of South Florida (WNSF) is $25 annually for individuals, $35 for a couple and $100 for a corporate membership.

Please make check payable to Writers Network (or WNSF) and mail to Jack J. Friedman at letterhead address.

WNSF (founded in 1981) is an organization of professional and aspiring writers committed to maintaining and improving the region's writing and publishing environments.

In more than a quarter century since its inception, WNSF has:

- Offered workshops in writing, editing and marketing.
- Provided a regional network and focus in the field of book publishing.
- Presented lectures by noted authors, agents, publishers and critics.
- Staged performances by the WNSF Playwrights' Drama Group.
- Participated in book fairs and many other book-related events.
- Sponsored annual contests for short stories, poetry and other genres.
- Supported and assisted the library system of South Florida.

WNSF welcomes your membership and looks forward to your active participation.
